- v. “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information” or “UPSI” means any information, relating to the Company or Securities of the Company, directly or indirectly, that is not generally available which upon becoming generally available, is likely to materially affect the price of the Securities of the Company and shall, ordinarily include but not restricted to, information relating to the following:
- a. financial results;
 - b. dividends;
 - c. change in capital structure;
 - d. mergers, de-mergers, acquisitions, delisting, disposals and expansion of business and such other transactions; and
 - e. changes in key managerial personnel;

Other terms not specifically defined here shall have the same meaning as assigned under the Insider Trading Regulations.

3. Applicability: This code is applicable to the Designated Persons and their immediate relatives

4. Responsibility of the Compliance Officer:

- a) The Compliance Officer shall be responsible for the compliance of Policies, procedures, maintenance of records / list of the Designated Persons and their relatives, monitoring adherence to the rules for preservation of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, monitoring the trades and the implementation of the codes specified in the PIT Regulations under the overall supervision of the Board of Directors.
- b) He shall be responsible for providing the necessary guidance to the Designated Persons on any clarifications sought by them.
- c) He shall present to the Board of Directors and the Audit Committee, the reports on trading, if any, in the shares of the Company by the Designated Persons and their relatives based on the pre-clearance of the trade granted.
- d) He shall be responsible for maintaining the structured digital database as required under the Insider Trading Regulations.

5. General Restrictions

- a) Designated Person (including his/her Immediate Relatives) shall maintain the confidentiality of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (UPSI) and should not trade in the Securities of the Company at any time while in possession of, or having access to UPSI.
- b) The UPSI shall be shared by the Designated Persons only for legitimate purposes as per the Company’s Policy on sharing of the UPSI for legitimate purposes

- c) The UPSI shall be communicated under the exceptional circumstances as mentioned under Regulation 3 (3) of the Insider Trading Regulations viz., obligation to make an open offer under Takeover Regulation and the case where the board of directors of the listed company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the company.

6. Trading Restrictions

- a) The Compliance Officer shall decide the date of closure of the window in trading in the shares of the Company and shall be responsible for disseminating this information to the Designated Persons and the external agencies viz., auditors, RTA, Banks, advisors, legal consultants etc. who are privy to the UPSI through email or such other permitted mode.
- b) The trading window shall be closed from the end of the quarter till 48 hours after the financial results (audited / unaudited) are made generally available to the public.
- c) The intimation about the trading window closure should also be given to the Stock Exchange where the shares of the Company are listed by the Compliance Officer.
- d) The Designated Persons and their relatives shall not trade in the shares of the Company when the trading window is closed and shall also not trade even when the trading window is open if such persons are in possession of UPSI.

7. Trading window

Designated persons and their immediate relatives may execute trades subject to compliance with the Code and Regulations. Towards this end, a notional trading window shall be used as an instrument for monitoring trading by the designated persons. The trading window /period is a period which will be specified for trading in the securities of the Company. The trading window shall be closed when the Compliance Officer determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of UPSI. Designated persons and their immediate relatives shall not trade in securities when the trading window is closed.

Trading window shall remain mandatorily closed from the end of every quarter i.e. 1st April, 1st July, 1st October, 1st January every year till 48 hours after the declaration of financial results for the respective quarter/year.

The gap between clearance of accounts by Audit Committee and Board Meeting should be as narrow as possible and preferably on the same day to avoid leakage of material information.

The timing for re-opening of the trading window shall be determined by the Compliance Officer taking into account various factors including the UPSI in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, which in any event shall not be earlier than forty- eight hours after the information becomes generally available.

8. Pre-clearance of trades

- a) When the trading window is open, trading by designated persons and their immediate relatives shall be subject to pre-clearance by the Compliance Officer, if the value of the proposed trade(s) is above minimum threshold limit of Rs. 10,00,000/- (Rupees Ten Lakh) in any calendar quarter.

- b) The Designated persons shall be required to submit application for pre-clearance along with Undertaking in the format specified in Annexure I.
- c) While calculating the Threshold Limit, the cumulative value of the Securities of the Company Traded, whether in one transaction or series of transactions, during a calendar quarter by the Designated Person and his /her Immediate Relatives shall be taken into account.
- d) All Designated Persons including their Immediate Relatives intending to Trade in the Securities of the Company up to the Threshold Limit fixed as aforesaid may do so without any clearance from the Compliance Officer.
- e) Prior to approving any trades, the Compliance Officer shall be entitled to seek declarations to the effect that the applicant for pre-clearance is not in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information. He shall also have regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.
- f) The Compliance Officer shall convey the approval for the trade in writing after verifying the details and the genuineness of the request. The format of the approval letter is enclosed as Annexure II
- g) The pre-cleared trade shall be executed within 7 trading days after the pre-clearance has been granted after which pre-clearance will lapse. Thereafter, a fresh pre-clearance will be needed for the Trades to be executed.
- h) Where a Trade is not executed after obtaining pre-clearance from the Compliance Officer, the concerned person shall intimate the same to the Compliance Officer within 2 (two) Trading Days after the expiry of 7 (seven) Trading Days from the date of pre-clearance by the Compliance Officer.
- i) In case the Compliance Officer or his/her Immediate Relatives intend to Trade in the Securities of the Company, he/she shall obtain pre-clearance for the same from the Managing Director of the Company, as per the pre-clearance procedure under this Code.

9. Contra Trade

- a) The Designated Persons and / or their immediate relatives shall not enter into a contra trade within 6 months from the earlier transactions (buy / sell). However, such restriction shall not be applicable for trades pursuant to exercise of ESOPs.
- b) The Compliance Officer may grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction on an application made in this behalf by the concerned Designated Person and after recording in writing the reasons in this regard; provided that such relaxation does not violate the Regulations.
- c) In case a contra Trade is executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of the aforesaid restriction, the profits from such Trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the SEBI Act.

10. Trading Plan

A Designated Person shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the compliance officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan. Such trading plan shall:

- i. not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
- ii. not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
- iii. entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
- iv. not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- v. set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
- vi. not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

The Compliance Officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of the Code or the Regulations and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor implementation of the trading plan. Upon approval of a trading plan, the Compliance Officer shall notify the trading plan to the Stock Exchange.

The trading plan once approved shall be irrevocable and shall be mandatorily implemented. Provided that the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced if any UPSI in possession of the Designated Person and/ or Immediate Relatives at the time of formulation of the plan has not become Generally Available Information at the time of commencement of implementation and in such event the Compliance Officer shall confirm that the commencement ought to be deferred until such UPSI becomes Generally Available Information, in compliance with the Regulations.

11. Disclosures and Reporting requirements

a) Initial disclosure

- i. Every promoter, member of the promoter group, key managerial personnel and director shall disclose his holding of securities of the company as on the date of these regulations taking effect, to the company within thirty days of these regulations taking effect, as per Form A set out in Annexure III.
- ii. Every person on appointment as key managerial personnel or a director of the company or upon becoming a promoter or member of the promoter group shall disclose his holding of securities of the company as on the date of appointment or becoming a promoter, to the company within seven days of such appointment or becoming a promoter, as per Form B set out in Annexure IV.

b) Continual Disclosure

- i. Every promoter, member of the promoter group, designated person and director of every company shall disclose to the company in Form C which is enclosed as

Annexure V or such other format as may be prescribed by SEBI from time to time, the number of such securities acquired or disposed of within two trading days of such transaction if the value of the securities traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of ten lakh rupees or such other value as may be specified.

- ii. Every company shall notify the particulars of such trading to the Stock Exchange within two trading days of receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information in Form D which is enclosed as Annexure VI or such other format as may be prescribed by SEBI from time to time.
- iii. Every Designated Person shall be required to disclose such details including his PAN as well as the names of educational institutions from which designated persons have graduated and names of their past employers on a one-time basis in the format prescribed in Annexure VII.
- iv. Every Designated Person shall be required to disclose names and PAN of the following persons on an annual basis in the format prescribed in Annexure VIII:
 - Immediate relatives
 - Persons with whom such designated person shares a material financial relationship
 - Phone, mobile number and cell numbers which are used by them.

c) Reporting by Compliance Officer:

- i. The Compliance Officer shall report to the Board of Directors of the Company and shall provide report to the Board on a quarterly basis in respect of Trading in excess of threshold limits in the Securities of the Company by the Designated Persons and their Immediate Relatives, the trading plans and pre-clearance applications approved and rejected by the Compliance Officer.
- ii. The Compliance Officer shall also provide report to the Audit Committee/ Chairperson of Audit Committee of the Company and to the Board once in a year about the compliance with the provisions of this code and regulations

12. Preservation of UPSI and Responsibilities of Designated Persons:

All Designated Persons and their Immediate Relatives shall maintain strict confidentiality with respect to all Unpublished Price Sensitive Information. To this end, no Designated Person shall:

- i. pass on Unpublished Price Sensitive Information to any person; or
- ii. disclose Unpublished Price Sensitive Information to their Immediate Relatives and any other person; or
- iii. discuss Unpublished Price Sensitive Information in public places where others might overhear; or
- iv. disclose Unpublished Price Sensitive Information to any other Designated Person or any other person who does not need to know the information to do his or her job; or
- v. give others the perception that he/she is trading on the basis of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information.
- vi. The Designated Persons shall be responsible for keeping their immediate relatives updated about their responsibilities under the Code.

13. Information on a need to know basis & Chinese Wall procedures

All information shall be handled within the organization on a need-to-know basis and no UPSI shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations. It is clarified that the term ‘legitimate purpose’, shall have the same meaning as provided under the Company’s policy on ‘Code of Fair Practices & Disclosure’. The UPSI must be kept confidential at all times. While communicating or allowing access to the Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, the Designated Person(s) is required to give due notice to such person(s) with whom the Unpublished Price Sensitive Information is shared, to maintain confidentiality of such Unpublished Price Sensitive Information in compliance with the Regulations and the Code.

No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of UPSI, relating to a company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations. Legitimate purposes are defined in the Code of Practices and Procedures for Fair Disclosure of UPSI.

No designated person or his/her immediate relatives shall trade or deal in equity shares of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information unless made in accordance with the Trading Plan.

The Designated Persons shall not advise any person to Trade in the Securities while being in possession, control or knowledge of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information. For avoidance of any doubt it is clarified that “advice” shall mean to include recommendations, communications or counseling.

Norms for appropriate Chinese Walls procedures & processes will be as under:

- i. To prevent the misuse of UPSI, the Company shall separate those areas of the Company which routinely have access to confidential information, considered “inside areas” from those areas which deal with sale/ marketing or other departments providing support services, considered “public areas”.
- ii. The employees in the inside area shall not communicate any UPSI to any one in public area.
- iii. The employees in inside area may be physically segregated from employees in public area.
- iv. Demarcation of the various departments as inside area may be implemented by the Company.
- v. In exceptional circumstances employees from the public areas may be brought “over the wall” and given confidential information on the basis of “need to know” criteria, under intimation to the Compliance Officer.
- vi. Files containing UPSI shall be kept secured with restricted access and computer files containing UPSI should be protected with the help of login, passwords, etc.

14. Violation of the Code

- a) In the event of violation of the Code of Conduct by Insiders, the Company will penalize such an Insider and appropriate action will be taken against such Persons by the Company after giving reasonable opportunity of being heard in the matter. Such persons shall be subjected to disciplinary actions, including wage freeze, suspension, recovery, etc. Any amount collected under this clause shall be remitted to the SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by the Board under the Act.

- b) The violation, if any, shall also be informed by the Company to the Stock Exchange promptly, in such form and such manner as may be specified by the SEBI from time to time.

15. Amendments

This Code is subject to review from time to time. The amendments in regulations shall be applicable to the designated persons and their immediate relatives once the amendments are effective irrespective of whether those changes are carried out in the code subsequently. The Audit Committee and Board shall have power to carry out major amendments in the Code. In case of any inconsistency between the provisions of the Code and the regulations, the regulations shall prevail. The Company Secretary is authorized to carry out necessary changes as required as per the Statutory amendments and the such amendments shall be notified to the Board at their next immediate Board meeting.
